Great Michigan Read

Join the state-wide reading of Arc of Justice: A Saga of Race, Civil Rights and Murder in the Jazz Age.

Written by Detroit native Kevin Boyle, Arc of Justice tells the story of African American Dr. Ossian Sweet and the chain of events that occurred after he purchased a home for his family in an all-white Detroit neighborhood in 1925. The book won the 2004 National Book Award for nonfiction and was named a 2005 Michigan Notable Book. Books and reader's guides are available at the library. The Great Michigan Read is presented by the Michigan Humanities Council with support from Meijer and the National Endowment for the Humanities.
